

Eligibility Criteria

- You should be a successful entrepreneur
- You should have good links and experience in the agricultural industry in your country
- You be excited by innovation and using ICT in agriculture
- You should have or be able to mobilise a local field team with deployment experience
- You should be able to develop detailed solutions and sell a range of services to clients
- You should be able to raise money from investors or development partners